

Meditation and beauty of the Osho International Meditation Resort continues to touch many celebrities, in india and abroad.

Sandip Soparrkar - the famous salsa dancer and TV show judge of dance India dance was nostalgic remembering his last visit and meditations. He was spellbound by the new in the meditation resort -- the Bahso spa area, the glass pyramid , the welcome center. The huge OSHO Auditorium seemed to be calling him for meditations , he said, and perhaps for a Salsa dance performance this winter....He couldn't resist enjoying a dance with himself during our Daily Morning Dance Celebration at the Buddha Groove.
