

NEW Mumbai international airport terminal T2 opens for public

The much-awaited Terminal 2 of the Mumbai international airport and the Sahar elevated road corridor has opened for the public.

The 2.2-km Sahar elevated road connects Western Express Highway (WEH) with the new Terminal 2 of the International Airport.

Through these projects the government of Maharashtra is trying to solve traffic problems of Mumbai which is the financial capital of India.